

Solving Simple Problems

Name _____

Key Concept and Vocabulary

Use the information to write an expression.

Number of hours Jackson worked

+

Additional hours Joe worked

=

Number of hours Joe worked

6

+

4

=

10

So, Joe worked 10 hours.

"more" means add.

PRACTICE MAKES PURR-FECT™

Check your answers at BigIdeasMath.com.

1. You have sixteen CDs and thirteen DVDs. How many more CDs do you have than DVDs?

2. You have two hundred eleven friends on Facebook and your sister has four hundred sixty-two friends on Facebook. Who has more friends on Facebook? How many more?

3. The table shows your cell phone bill for one month. How much do you spend on your cell phone in one month?

Unlimited Calling	$43
Unlimited Text Messaging	$12

4. You and your friend raised money for charity by collecting money and participating in a five-mile walk. You collected one hundred twenty dollars and your friend collected two hundred thirty-five dollars. Who collected more money? How much more?

5. You have eighty-two songs on your MP3 player. If you add twenty-one more songs, how many songs are on your MP3 player?

6. Your goal is to swim three hundred yards in the pool. You have fifty-five yards until you meet your goal. How many yards have you already swam?

